Commissioners. ccompanying letter he says, "I should he in return a letter signed by Mr. Lloyd George stating that I have made this gift, to put in my safe, so that my children may know that their father also was willing to make a sacrifice for his country."

In acknowledging the gift, Mr. Lloyd you to make this sacrifice at a tim when the mother country is so vitally in need of all support. I can assure you that we at home are thrilled at the way our friends across the sea have come forward to give us their best in our hour of trial. It is not only soldiers and sallors to whom our thanks are due, but also to those noncombatants who have so generously given of their assistance."
